REPORT

Date October 18, 1933

Subject (in full) Communist raid on the Kwong Hwa (光華) Primary School, 1267 Robison Road on 7.3.32.

Made by D.I. Kuh Pao-hwa Forwarded by D.S.P. [illegible]

With reference to the endorsement of the Officer i/c Special Branch on the attached copy of a Pootoo Road Station report dated 16.10.33 on the ruling by Judge Yuen of the Shanghai Special District Court to the effect that time expired prisoners Huang Pah Yoong (黃伯庸) and Zi Bah Doo (徐白瞎) be temporarily detained in the Civil House of Detention pending an inspection to be made by representatives of the local Kuomintang Headquarters, I have to state the following :-

It will be recalled that the two prisoners were arrested on 7.3.32 together with nine others in the headquarters of the "Chinese Women's Anti-Japanese and National Salvation League," located in the Kwong Hwa (光華) Primary School, No.1267 Robison Road, while they were discussing plans to hold street demonstrations on March 8 (1932)- the Anniversary of "International Women's Day." They were each sentenced to 1 year and six months imprisonment on May 2, 1932 and were due for release on October 15, 1933.

The provisions of Article 5 of the "Regulations Governing House of Reflection" promulgated by the National Government on December 2, 1929, reads as follows :-

"Counter-revolutionists who comply with any of the "following conditions shall be sent to a House of "Reflection :-

"(2) Where he has been convicted of an offence "against the State and has completed his term of "imprisonment, but there is fear of his committing "a further offence against the State."

The court ruling in this case is in accordance with the existing regulations governing counter-revolutionists and the House of Reflection.

D. C. (Crime).

I have to inform you that a letter dated September 29 written by Convict No. 742C Zi Bah Doo (徐白渡) and addressed to Zee Shoh (徐旭) c/O Zung Chong Yoong (陳昌傭) of the Tung Woo Law University (東吳), Quinsan Road, was received on September 29 from the Superintendent of Gaols.

Enquiries regarding this letter leave little room for doubt that Zung Chong Yoong (陳昌傭) to whom it is addressed is identical with a person of the same name who was arrested by detectives of Hongkew Station on September 28, 1933, at the instance of the Nantao District Court on a charge of forging the seals of the Education Bureau on bogus school diplomas. An order to have Zung Chong Yoong handed over to the Chinese authorities was made on September 30.

The facts which have now come to light indicate that the arrest of Zung Chong Yoong may have had some political significance as was at first suspected.

SHANGHAI MUNICIPAL POLICE

No. D File No. 372/2

Date September 26, 19 33.

Subject (in full) Letter addressed to convict No.7420 Zi Bah-doo (徐白度) from one Shoh (旭).

Made by D.I.Kuh Pao-hwa Forwarded by S.B. Lu S.I.

With reference to the Officer i/c Special Branch memo dated 19.9.33 relating to the above subject, I have to state that according to discreet enquiries made by C.D.C.75 the writer of this letter is one Zee Shoh (徐旭) who is the younger brother of convict Zi Bah Doo (徐白度). He graduated from the Pih Shan (壁山) Middle School at Pih Shan (壁山) Hsien, Szechuen, in May 1929, following which he proceeded to Chenju where he entered the Chinan University. Here he studied until June 1931 when he returned to his native place. He is reported to have arrived in Shanghai about a month ago with the object of seeing his brother (Convict No.7420) who is at present undergoing a sentence of 18 months imprisonment in the Ward Road Gaol on a charge of propagating communism. He is staying with different friends in Shanghai but has no fixed address. Occasionally he visits a student named Zung Chong Yoong (陳忠鏞) of the Tung Woo (東吳) Law University, Quinsan Road.

It will be recalled that the convict in question is one named Zi Bah Doo (徐白度) who was arrested on 7.3.32 together with ten others at the headquarters of the "Chinese Women's Anti-Japanese and National Salvation League" located in the Kwong Hwa (光華) Primary School at No.1267 Robison Road while they were discussing plans to hold street demonstrations on March 8 (1932), the anniversary of "International Women's Day". A search of the premises resulted in the unearthing of a large quantity of communist literature bearing on the occasion.

The original letter is attached herewith for return to the Gaol authorities.

The 9th accused has one previous conviction of a similar nature.

D.S. Moore:- The police received information that the organisation to which the accused belongs had opened at 1267 Robison Road on the 1st of this month and that they were going to hold a demonstration on the 8th which is a Communist anniversary. A warrant was therefore obtained and the place raided by ~~the~~ a large party of police at 3.40 p.m. on the 7.3.32 wherein the 11 accused were all arrested in a downstairs room which to all intents and purposes were used as a school room. All the accused were round 2 tables and some of them were writing on the flags which were seized. There were in all 3500 pamphlets of an Anti Nou Ming Tang and Communist nature seized. I cannot say which of the accused were writinget the time we entered. All the pamphlets flags, etc. were found in this downstairs room.

S.S.D. 2Nd:- Corroborated and added that at the time of entry no meeting was in progress. Some were standing and some sitting round the tables.

1st acc:- I went to this place to see a friend named Li Kwei Ying who comes from the same place as I do. He asked me to go there and see him and as he was not there, I waited for him to come. I arrived at this place at about 2 o'clock and I did not see the pamphlets on the tables nor do I know what is transacted in this place. I did not know that it was the headquarters of the Communist party, nor did I know that today was a Communist anniversary. I do not know where this friend of mine can be found.

2nd acc:- I met the 9th accused in Av. Joffre at 1 p.m. and she asked me to accompany her to this place. I arrived there at about 3 p.m. 3 p.m. and was just about to leave the place when the police arrived. I did not know that it was the headquarters of the Chinese Woman's Anti Japanese and National Salvation League. I only met the 9th accused once before as she knows one of my friends. I am a student of the Chi Nan University and I know nothing about the pamphlets or flags. The 9th accused was engaged in a conversation with some of the other people in the room, whom I do not know. This is the 1st time I have been to that place and I did not see any one writing on the flags.

3rd acc:- I went to this place at 3 p.m. to see a Mrs Ma, who lives in French Town. I do not know the names of the road as they are very long. Mrs Ma was going to recommend me a job as a nurse and she gave this address as the place to see her. I met Mrs Ma yesterday on the road and she told me to go this place and she was going to see about getting me a job as a nurse. I did not go to this place in order to attend a meeting, and I do not know who is charge of this place. I know nothing about a demonstration about to be held. I saw the flags but I do not know what they were for, as I cannot read. My husband left Shanghai yesterday to bring his mother down, and I have no other friends in Shanghai.

4th acc:- I had just arrived at this place by myself. I saw in the Shun Pao, that this place could recommend people as a nurse and so I went there in answer to the advertisement, as I had no food. I do not know the other people in the room and was about to leave when the police arrived and prevented me from going. I did not the pamphlets nor flags and do not know what it was all about. I am a native of Szechuen and have no relations in Shanghai, so I am unable to obtain any security.

5th acc:- I am a refugee from the Chenei district and went to this place to borrow some money from a Miss Lieu, who told meto go to this place where she would lend me some money. As she was not in I was asked to wait for her arrival. I do not anything about this place, nor can I read or write. I do not know where this Miss Lieu lives. I used to live in the Luoshan Road and my husband brought me to Shanghai. I am unable to obtain security.

6th accused:- I met Yang Hz Fah on the road and was asked to this place to see Yang. I do not know where Yang lives. I did not see the pamphlets or flags. Yang left the place on some business and said he would return for me later. It was at 11 a.m. that I went to this place. I have a brother-in-law who works in a shop in Canton Road but have no other relations besides him.

7thacc:- I received a letter from from King Chi Ning asking me to go there and see him. I do not know where the letter has gone to, I may have thrown it in the waste paper basket. Perhaps the letter is still in my home. I arrived there at 2 p.m. but King had not arrived. I did not see any pamphlets or flags, as I went into an inside room. I can obtain security.

8th accused:- I went there to see my English teacher named Yong Ching ie who said she would give me lessons in English. I did not take any English books with me. I have been there very often in order to see this Yong. I did not see any pamphlets or flags and do not know for what purpose this place is used for. I did not go there to attend a meeting. I live in Yonrts eboo and have relati and get security.

9th acc:- I know the 2nd accused since this year and only met him twice. I went there to see Lin Ping and was waiting for him. The 2nd accused was going to take me to the Jessfield arm. I did go there to attend a meeting., and I did not see any pamphlets or flags. This Lin lives in Burkill Road somewhere, but I dont know which house it is. I did not know this was the headquarters of the Communists. I have relations and can get security. I admit being before the Court before.

10th acc:- I went there to see Loo Yoh Chiew in order to borrow some money from her but I do not know where she lives. I was waiti for her and had just arrived in the place. I do not know the other people and am not a member of the Salvation League. I have no friends and cannot get security.

11th acc:- My relation wanted to his son to school and Sun Yoh Lang told me of this place so I went there to make enquiries about sending this boy to school. I was about to leave when I got arrested

Mr Lea:- This case seems strange as all the accused say they went there to see friend and it seems funny that none of them know the addresses of these friends. It is for them to bring clear proof for what prupose they went to this place. I ask that the 1st & 2nd accused be detained and also the 9th accused. As to the remainder, I leave it to the Court to decide whether they be detained or let out on security.

Regarding the memo of Officer i/c Special Branch calling for a list of books and papers other than propaganda literature seized during a raid made on March 7 at the headquarters of the Chinese Women's Anti-Japanese and National Salvation League, 1267 Robison Road. A complete list of everything seized during the raid is attached to the appropriate file. Other than the items mentioned therein, nothing was taken to the Station following the arrest of the 11 persons found on the premises.

It must be remembered that according to the information received and already recorded, the Shanghai Western Branch of the Chinese Women's Anti-Japanese League for National Salvation was established in the Kwong Hwa Primary School (光華小学), 1267 Robison Road only on March 1, 1932. Between the date of opening of this League and its closure following the Police raid on March 7, it is unlikely that any extensive record of its activities were maintained.

To all Party Branches,

The Central Committee of the Party has passed the following resolutions for the celebration of the anniversary of the Women's Movement Day on March 8, 1932:-

Summarized translation of a manifesto purporting to have emanated from the Kiangsu Women's Department of the Chinese Communist Party, addressed to all revolutionary bodies in connection with the Anniversary of the International Women's Day, on March 8, which was obtained by the Municipal Police in the Western District on March 1, 1932.

To all revolutionary sisters throughout the country.

The misery caused by the first world war has not yet vanished. The red-eyed beasts - the Imperialists - are again rushing at China which is regarded as a piece of [illegible] meat, and stirring up a second world war. Japanese Imperialists have seized the North-East, the French are invading Hunan and Kweichow, the British are attempting to make a prey of Sikong and Thibet, while the Americans are seizing control over the landing, naval and aerial communications.

The foreign Imperialists have jointly utilized the Kuomintang to deceive, to oppress, to massacre and to bleed the Chinese people and to attack the Soviet Areas.

The Anniversary of the International Women's Day, which falls on March 8, is rapidly approaching. We, toiling women, have long been under the yoke of the Imperialists and the Kuomintang Government, as well as the oppressive landlords and capitalists. Our mode of living is worse than that of cows and horses. Since the outbreak of hostilities in Shanghai, the entire body of women labourers has been exposed to cold and starvation. This anniversary, which has acquired a brilliant history and which possesses a political significance, was originated in Denmark in 1919 and the following are our slogans :-

1. Oppose the partition of China by foreign Imperialists !
2. Oppose the bombardment of Shanghai by Japanese Imperialists !
3. Oppose a second world war !
4. Oppose the attack by Imperialists on Soviet Russia and Soviet Areas.

5. Declare a general strike and let the people arm themselves to support the labouring masses!
6. Oppose the Chinese governments of the various Kuomintang Cliques which betrays the interests of the Chinese people !
7. Oppose the closing of anti-Japanese organizations and the arrest of persons engaged in anti-Japanese movements !
8. Oppose the establishment of a neutral zone and oppose the collection of municipal rates !
9. Demand relief for unemployed workers, flood and war refugees from the Chinese Government and factories; besiege the Bureau of Social Affairs and demand shelter , food and clothing as well as non-payment of rents !
10. Unite with the Japanese women-labourers and overthrow our common enemy - the Japanese Imperialists and the Kuomintang Government !
11. Let the women-labourers throughout the world unite. Long live the Soviet and the Chinese women labourers !
12. Long live the International Women's Day !

Summarised translation of a manifesto purporting to have emanated from the Kiangsu Women's Department of the Chinese Communist Party, addressed to all revolutionary bodies in connection with the Anniversary of the International Women's Day, on March 8, which was obtained by the Municipal Police in the Western District on March 1, 1932.

To all revolutionary sisters throughout the country.

The misery caused by the first world war has not yet vanished. The red-eyed beasts - the Imperialists - are again rushing at China which is regarded as a piece of flesh, and stirring up a second world war. Japanese Imperialists have seized the North-East, the French are invading Hunan and Kweichow, the British are attempting to make a prey of Sikong and Thibet, while the Americans are seizing control over the landing, naval and aerial communications.

The foreign Imperialists have jointly utilized the Kuomintang to deceive, to oppress, to massacre and to bleed the Chinese people and to attack the Soviet Areas.

The Anniversary of the International Women's Day, which falls on March 8, is rapidly approaching. We, toiling women, have long been under the yoke of the Imperialists and the Kuomintang Government, as well as the oppressive landlords and capitalists. Our mode of living is worse than that of cows and horses. Since the outbreak of hostilities in Shanghai, the entire body of women labourers has been exposed to cold and starvation. This anniversary, which has acquired a brilliant history and which possesses a political significance, was originated in Denmark in 1919 and the following are our slogans :-

1. Oppose the partition of China by foreign Imperialists !
2. Oppose the bombardment of Shanghai by Japanese Imperialists !
3. Oppose a second world war !
4. Oppose the attack by Imperialists on Soviet Russia and Soviet Areas.

5. Declare a general strike and let the people arm themselves to support the labouring masses!
6. Oppose the Chinese governments of the various Kuomintang Cliques which betrays the interests of the Chinese people !
7. Oppose the closing of anti-Japanese organizations and the arrest of persons engaged in anti-Japanese movements !
8. Oppose the establishment of a neutral zone and oppose the collection of municipal rates !
9. Demand relief for unemployed workers, flood and war refugees from the Chinese Government and factories; besiege the Bureau of Social Affairs and demand shelter , food and clothing as well as non-payment of rents !
10. Unite with the Japanese women-labourers and overthrow our common enemy - the Japanese Imperialists and the Kuomintang Government !
11. Let the women-labourers throughout the world unite. Long live the Soviet and the Chinese women labourers !
12. Long live the International Women's Day !

POLITICAL

COMMUNIST MATTERS

The Anniversary of the International Women's Day March 8.

Communist leaflets bearing on the anniversary of the International Women's Day, which falls on March 8, have been found on several occassions in the Settlement during the past week. These handbills urge women of the working class to celebrate March 8 by declaring a general strike and by holding demonstrations for the purpose of demanding means of sustenance from public organizations and official bodies.

According to informations from a reliable source, the Chinese Communist Party were arranging to give effect to this policy by holding demonstrations near the Kawamura Memorial Tower on Robison Road to commemorate the anniversary either at 10 a.m. or 2 p.m. March 8. A raid made by the Municipal Police on the afternoon of March 7 on the headquarters of the Chinese "Women's Anti-Japanese and National Salvation League, No.1267 Robison Road, however, is likely to result in a change in the original plans, and that the demonstration will be abandoned in favour of-flying meetings of small parties of "Red" sympathisers who will distribute communist literature and shout slogans. In the course of the ra raid mentioned above the Municipal Police arrested two men and nine women of the student type and seized 3,500 leaflets o: more than a dozen different varities. The following is a summarized account of the contents of a number of the leaflets which are typical of the others:-

"A" Handbill entitled "Manifesto of the Preparatory Committe for the Celebration of the Women's Movement Day of March 8", purporting to have emanated from the Anti-Japanes and Nation Salvation League of Chinese Women". This pamphlet declares t the Sino-Japanese conflict is the forerunner of another worl war and that the co-operation being arranged by "Anti-Sovi-battle lines is the precureor of an attach upon Soviet Russia. Reference is made to the sufferings caused to the people by Japanese aggression, and an allegation is made that these sufferings are the result of the non-resistance policy of the Kuomintang and the Nationalist Government. The concluding sentence urges the people to rise and establish proletarian political rule.

"B" Handbill entitled "Letter to the male and female workers in connection with the Anniversary of the Women's Movement Day on March 8. It purports to have emanated from the Kiangsu Provincial Committee of the Chinese Communist Party. It urges amle and female workers to go on strike on March 8, the anniversary of the Women's Movement Day, and submit the following demands:-

1. An 8-hour working day for adults, 6-hour working day for juveniles under 20 years of age, a 4-hour working day for juveniles under 13 years of age, one day's holiday in every week and pay for Sunday's the same as for working days.

2. 20% increase in pay and a minimum wage of $18 per month; payment of ages monthly in advance, equal pay for equal work; irrespective of sex of operative; cancellation of the system under which fines and reduction of ages are imposed.

3. For female workers free medical treatment in case of sickness, one month's leave with pay at time of marriage, two months' leave with pay at times of confinements and institution of special arrangements for the care of sick workers, children of workers, etc.

4. That the closing down of factories, the abuse and dismissal of female workers cease and that operatives who have lost their employment, be reinstated.

5. That ample unemployed workers be given relief, shelter and food or rememorative work.

6. That compensation in the sum of $5,000.00 be paid in respect of each worker who is killed, $2,000 for each worker who is injured and measures be adopted to protect workers from bombs and shells.

The handbill concludes with an exhortation to workers to join the Communist Party and to support the Soviet Republic of China.

Two cartoons, entitled "Revolutionary Pictorial", special issues Nos. 2 and 3, bearing on the Anniversary of the "Internation al Women's Days March 8. They purport to have emanated from the propaganda depatment of the Kiangsu Provincial Committee of the Chin Chinese Communist Party.

They endeavour to demonstrate that female workers are obliged to suffer terrible hardships in places under Kuomintang and Imperial rule, and on the other hand point a rescate picture of the utopia happiness enjoyed by people of the working class in the areas whe the Soviet reigns supreme.

In view of the incidents of the anniversary, the Chine Authorities have decided to take special precaution in territory under their jurisdiction.

My name is Zung Nyung, aged 28, I am a native of Lichen Hsien of Shantung, married female and living at No.1o Zung Tuh Faung, Wang Pang Road near N. Szechuen Road, with my husband Zung Li Ts, who was employed at the Shanghai Commercial & Savings Bank Hongkew Branch. Owing to the Sino-Japanese Hostilities I together with my husband temporarily live in a friend's home in French Concession. As we know that our property which left in our home was destroyed by shells, we barrowed some money from our friends, but the amount was not sufficent for us to go back to Shantung. At this juncture I noticed an article in the Newspaper stating that the Chinese Women's Anti-Japanese National League at 1267 Yeu Yue Li Robison Road would introduce any woman to be a nurse. Therefore I went to this place this afternoon, where I met a Mrs. Ma,,who asked me to write a testimonial, when I was arrested by the Police. The above statement which I made is true.
